

IT'S A PUB – IT'S A HUB!

The Inn on the Glebe, our pop-up pub on the Glebe Field, is open every day of Stockfest except Wednesday 15 August. It offers fine beers, wines and spirits – and soft drinks for customers of any age. Come in and shelter from the sun!!

SATURDAY 18 AUGUST, AFTERNOON & EVENING

11.30am–2pm

Car Boot Sale on the Glebe

£6 per car for sellers. Set up from 10.30

11.30am–4pm

Stalls on the Glebe and in the Sutton Hall

Book stall, BBQ, bouncy castle, with music from Kennet Radio

1–3pm

'Ave a go with Arty on the Glebe

Children's activities with Arty Pumpkin. £3 per child

2pm

Grand Auction, the Inn on the Glebe

With Hungerford's Stewart Hofgartner, as seen on Dickinson's Real Deal. Come and join Stewart in our auction of amazing lots. See website for list of items and to bid in advance.

From 6pm

Jazz on the Glebe, with

Teddy White Band

upbeat rhythm and blues, beat and boogie from the 1940s, 50s and 60s

Hot Swing Gentlemen

play their own version of swing and gypsy jazz

Tickets £5 (£7 on door). Bring a picnic or buy food from stalls on the Glebe.

The Inn on the Glebe is open from 12 noon–10pm.

Stockcross is on the B4000 Ermin Street, 2 miles from Newbury, 1 mile from the A34/A4 junction.

The Sutton Hall, RG20 8LN, is on Church Road, Stockcross, and the Church, Glebe Field and Post Office are all very close.

Stockfest tickets in advance from:

www.stockfest.co.uk, or Stockcross PO/Village Store.

ALL ENQUIRIES: email info@stockfest.co.uk

SUNDAY 19 AUGUST, AFTERNOON & EVENING

The Glebe Field will open at 11am for those who want to exhibit their classic cars or bikes and at 12 noon for visitors.

The Rare Breeds car tour should start returning from about 12.30pm.

From 12 noon, Afternoon Party

With the Inn on the Glebe open from 12 noon, food stalls (hot and cold food and afternoon teas), craft and gift stalls, both on the Glebe and in the Sutton Hall. Bring a picnic or buy food and drink from stalls on the Glebe.

12 noon –5pm

- Stockcross House, open gardens and kids' fairy trail
- Art exhibition in the Church
- Inn on the Glebe open

Live music from 1.30pm, with

Finisterre

An eclectic mix of genres, covers and originals

MisSpent Ukes

Newbury's own fun 4-piece ukulele band

2–4pm

Drop-in children's art workshop with Simon Jardine, £3

4.30–5.30pm

Happy hour at the Inn on the Glebe, and grand raffle draw

5.30–10pm

Live music: Farewell to Stockfest 18 (suggested donation £5)

A welcome return of the superb Chicago 9. Come and dance the evening away till...

10PM: LAST ORDERS AT INN ON THE GLEBE!

Supported by Greenham Trust

Supporting Newbury & District Cancer Care Trust

STOCK FEST18

A COMMUNITY FESTIVAL
IN STOCKCROSS,
WEST BERKSHIRE
12-19 AUGUST 2018

www.stockfest.co.uk

FOR ARTISTS
MUSIC LOVERS
DOGS
HATMAKERS
& FILMFANS

HAPPY HOURS
FOR ALL THE FAMILY!

Sunday 12 August 12 noon to 6pm

GRAND OPENING FETE ON THE GLEBE FIELD

From 12 noon:

Funfair rides, hog roast

Live music, with

Raspo Steel Band

Started 1997 as a community project in Reading, this lively band has played at Womad, Olinda carnival Brazil, and Notting Hill carnival

Kennet Accordion Orchestra

A Kennet valley band supported by an enthusiastic group of accordionists from Marlborough, Hungerford, Newbury and Swindon

12 noon, Dog show

Sponsored by Oscar's Dog Foods. £2 per category

2 pm, Balloon competition

Tickets £1

3pm, Tug of War

£5 per team of five

Inn on the Glebe open, 12 noon–6pm

Monday 13 August 10am–12 noon approx

Ramble

Meet in the Glebe Field for 3 miles easy walking. FREE event.

Monday 13 August 2pm

History walk

Learn about the history of Stockcross during a gentle walk around the village. Meet outside the Sutton Hall. FREE event.

Monday 13 August 7.30pm

Gospel choir in Stockcross Church

The EAGA Choir, aka De Montfort University Gospel Choir from Leicester (stars of Britain's Got Talent, Songs of Praise...)

Tickets £10 (£12 on door), U15s £5. Limited tickets.

Monday 13 August

Inn on the Glebe open 6–10pm

Tuesday 14 August, 10am–12 noon

Mural painting in Stockcross Post Office garden

Drop in and help paint a mural of the village with Simon Jardine. FREE event.

Tuesday 14 August, from 10am

Kids' pizza making in the Sutton Hall

A chance for children to get 'stuck in' then take home their delicious pizza for tea. FREE event.

Tuesday 14 August, 10am and 3pm

Stockcross House garden tours

Personal tour with head gardener Meri Mower. Wisteria-covered pergola, reflecting pond, vegetable garden, stumpery and more. Tickets £5, limited to 20 per tour.

Tuesday 14 August, 7.30pm

Pub quiz, the Inn on the Glebe

Entry £2 per person, teams of four.

Tuesday 14 August

Inn on the Glebe open 6–10pm

Wednesday 15 August 10.30am

Come and try Pilates in the Sutton Hall

All ages are welcome. Tickets £10 (offset against the cost of a course). Booking by phone essential: contact Gillian on 07981 362867.

Wednesday 15 August 11am and 3pm

Dogs Trust talk, tour and tea

Meet at Dogs Trust Newbury, Plumb's Farm, Hamstead Marshall RG20 0HR to find out about this local charity.

Tickets £10 (includes £5 donation to Dogs Trust), U15s £5. Limited to 20 per session.

Wednesday 15 August 2–3pm

Gardeners' Question Time in the Sutton Hall

Any questions for our three experts? If possible, put them on a card and hand it in at the post office or Inn on the Glebe by Tuesday 14th. Tickets £5.

Wednesday 15 August 7.30pm

Pop-Up Puccini with Kennet Opera, Sutton Hall

Enjoy some of Puccini's best-loved arias, duets and chorus numbers. Bar in hall open 6–10pm.

Tickets £10 (£12 on door), U15s £5. Limited tickets.

Wednesday 15 August

Inn on the Glebe closed today

Thursday 16 August 10am–4pm

Art workshop in mixed media, Sutton Hall

Build your creative vision with Max Hale. For adults of all abilities, including beginners. See website for advice on media and materials. Booking essential, £30. Limited tickets.

Thursday 16 August 10am

Make your own fascinator, Stockcross House pavilion

Learn how to design and create your own fascinator using millinery techniques. Materials available, but please bring along your favourite trimmings and scissors, needles, pins, thread, tape measure, apron. Tickets £40, numbers limited, more details on our website.

Thursday 16 August 2–4pm

Table tennis, Sutton Hall (small hall)

Try your hand against a table tennis robot! Suitable for all ages. FREE event.

Thursday 16 August 8pm

Singing for the terrified, in the Sutton Hall

Jim Mitchell leads a fun session with everything from gospel to West End shows. No need to be able to read music. Tickets £5, U15s £2.

Thursday 16 August

Inn on the Glebe open 6–10pm

Friday 17 August

Tours of Benham Estate, 10am–12 noon and 3–5pm

Tractor & trailer tour. Meet at Benham Estate Office, RG20 8LR. Turn S off A4 opposite Nalderhill Road. Tickets £10, only bookable online. Limited tickets.

Friday 17 August 10am–12 noon

The miracle of acupuncture, Sutton Hall

Carolyn Sykes will be giving a talk on her simple methods that improve overall wellbeing. Tickets £5 (£7 on door).

Friday 17 August 12.30–2pm

Picnic with harps, Stockcross House croquet lawn

Bring a picnic and enjoy the music of Wessex Harpers while you eat. Tea and coffee available. FREE event.

Friday 17 August 7pm

Classic film – Hitchcock's North by Northwest. Sutton Hall

Introduced by author and film reviewer Andy Coleby. Tickets £5 (£7 on door).

Friday 17 August

Inn on the Glebe open 6–10pm

Saturday 18 August 10–11am

Dog walk

Join us on a stroll along a route suitable for well-behaved dogs. Meet outside the Sutton Hall. FREE event.

Saturday 18 August 10–11am

Fun Bootcamp, Stockcross House croquet lawn

Run by Lee Busby of Berkshire Fitness and Wellbeing. Suitable for all ages. FREE event.

Sat. and Sun. AFTERNOON & EVENING ON THE GLEBE — see overleaf!

Buy tickets – find out more

www.stockfest.co.uk